KIDS, CAN YOU SING? ENTHUSIASTIC YOUNGSTERS SOUGHT TO PERFORM AT EARTH DAY PARADE IN APRIL

Birmingham, AL— Annual auditions for Auntie Litter's Pollution Patrol for children ages 8 -15 years old will be held on Sunday, March 1, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. at the Vestavia Hills Public Library. The Pollution Patrol will perform for Auntie Litter's 18th Annual Earth Day Parade and Celebration on Wednesday, April 22 in downtown Birmingham and will lead the nation's largest Earth Day Parade for children.

Over 40,000 children have marched in Auntie Litter's Earth Day Parade since its inception. The event includes live musical entertainment, science shows, educational exhibits, and costume contests. Each child attending the auditions must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. No prior preparation or experience is required.

For information about the Pollution Patrol Auditions or Auntie Litter's 18th Annual Earth Day Parade & Celebration, call 205-879-3009 or visit www.AuntieLitter.org. For media inquiries, contact LaShanna Tripp at 205-879-3009 or via e-mail at LTripp@AuntieLitter.org.
